First Generation

1. Benjamin Davis.

The family as follows came from Virginia and in 1795 was in Mercer County, KY on the tax rolls of the William Gaines District: Benjamin, James, Joseph, as well as Charles, Samuel, James (overseer), Joshua and William Davis and Ambrose Gordon.

They came to Hopkins County by the time it was founded in 1807.

The suit filed in Hopkins County, Kentucky, found in bundle #65 - 1809-1812, filed February 24, 1809, provides much data on the makeup of this family. Also see B223¹ and B540².

His name derives from Peggy Brown Chapman in The Bourland Bulletin, No. 4, 1997.

Benjamin married Priscilla Davis.

They had the following children:

| 2 | i. | James (1740-1808) |

2. James Davis (Benjamin¹). Born in 1740/1750. James died in May 1808 in Hopkins Cty, KY. Occupation: Carpenter, Joiner.

On March 22, 1782, James sold his Montgomery County land to Richard, receiving 200 acres of Richard's Mercer County land, certain live stock and some money, which was subsequently paid at Gordon's Station in Mercer County, the home of Joseph Davis, who had married Captain John Gordon's wife, Elizabeth Grayson Gordon, in 1783.

James moved to the Dix River tract in Mercer County in the fall of 1781, and settled there with his family. The place was one and a half miles from his brother

Register Report

Joseph's residence. James resided there 15 years, and in the years 1790-1-2, he built a stone house 20' x 30' in the clear, one story with an underground passage and kitchen. He was a house carpenter and joiner by trade, and he and his sons, Harrison and James, Jr. sawed the scuttlings, made the shingles, and constructed the woodwork. They also worked at the building trade in Harrodsburg in 1792.

In 1795, he left Mercer County, moving to Montgomery, where he stayed two years, coming thence to Henderson County (now Hopkins) in 1798. His brother Joseph and his children and step-children had preceded him by one year.

James Davis was at one time worth 12-13 hundred pounds, when he came to the Green River country was still worth $2,500. Richard Davis also removed from Lincoln Co., Virginia, to Mercer Co., Kentucky, and thence to Henderson (Hopkins) Co.

He is probably the James Davis who owned 350 acres on the Pond River and 100 acres on Flat Creek in 1807 Hopkins County, according to the March 2005 Yesterday's Tuckaways.

James married Ann Lnu.

They had the following children:

- | | | |

| 10 | ii. | James (~1772-1802) |

Register Report

Cty, KY.

He served in the Virginia Line and applied on October 13, 1828 for a pension, number S35876, at age 76, having enlisted at Bedford City, Virginia. His pension paid only $79.22 as he died soon thereafter.

He did not marry.

5. Thomas Davis (Benjamin¹). Born abt 1756. Thomas died in Dec 1842 in Hopkins Cty, KY.

!Thomas probably never married. His will is B306. In that will he freed slaves named Bristoe, Abba and Sarah and gave them land, stock and farming tools. The will names many Hopkins County names. including Robertson, Woodruff, Davis, Morton, Hardwicke, Malin, and others.

6. Richard Davis (Benjamin¹). Born in 1746 in VA. Richard died on 7 Oct 1812 in Hopkins Cty, KY. Occupation: Sheriff.

He served three years in the Revolutionary War. Upon enlistment as a private he was granted 200 acres; upon his promotion to sergeant the land grant was increased to 2,000 acres. He moved to Hopkins County in 1784.

When Hopkins County was formed, the History says, "From the south end came Dick Davis with his long beard and pigtail, in ancient swallow tail coat".

He was the best known of the brothers, and was called "Squire Davis". He was one of the several who helped form Hopkins County in 1806-7; was one of the first magistrates or Justices of the Peace; and the first Sheriff.³

When he came to Kentucky he bought about 2,000 acres of military lands about 9 miles south of Madisonville. He later built the first brick house in Hopkins County. See B311.³

He and Ann deeded 250 acres in Montgomery County, Kentucky in 1810 to son Thomas C. Davis. See B305 for his will, dated 7 Oct 1812, proven November in the County Court of 1812. Witnesses: Saml. H. Earle, Moses Steele, John Davis.

In 1773 Richard married Ann "Nancy" Chiles, daughter of Henry Chiles & Mary Carr, in Spotsylvania Cty, VA. Born in 1755 in VA. Ann "Nancy" died on 28 Jul 1849 in Hopkins Cty, KY.

Register Report

7. Charles Davis (Benjamin¹).

On 19 Jan 1795 Charles married Catherine Tethero, in Mercer Cty, KY.

8. Elizabeth Davis (Benjamin¹).

She is thought to be sister to these brothers. See Bourland Bulletin, No. 4, 1997.

On 29 Apr 1765 Elizabeth married Isham Talbot, son of Matthew Talbot (-1758) & Jane Clayton (~1714-), in Bedford Cty, VA. Born on 3 Nov 1738 in Lunenburg Cty, VA. Isham died in probably Henderson Cty, KY, on 25 Sep 1825; he was 86.

Isham Talbot served as a 1st Lieutenant in the 5th Regiment, Virginia Line. While we know few details about his service record, it was of sufficient distinction for the DAR to recognize his service and admit his descendants on the basis of that record.

Sometime before October 1785, Isham relocated his family to Kentucky, settling first in the area around Harrodsburg. It is possible, even likely, that Isham's departure for Kentucky coincided with the departure of his older half brother, John, for Georgia.

Isham moved his family to the area around the present day community of Harrodsburg. The distance from Bedford to Harrodsburg was about 400 miles using 21st century roads. He established himself quickly and within a few years, his holdings exceeded that of any other person in the county, including more than 18000 acres located in various places around the state.

There were 3 Isham Talbots in KY at about the same time. They were all related but the connections are fuzzy. This Isham is reported by some to be the older half brother of the Senator Talbot, who had come to Mercer Co. from Bedford Co. VA. He may have raised the younger Isham & Elizabeth as adopted children. I have been researching this line and know some about the Henderson Co. connections with Edmund Talbot (son of other Isham), first surveyor of that county.

They were all decendants of Mathew Talbot of New London, VA where the Bedford Co. Court house began in his cabin. My third great grandfather was named for him (Mathew Talbot Duncan - James Ray's grandson) - Mathew Talbot would be a fifth great grandfather. I finally found the Senator Talbot's grave in Frankfort. It was not in the original location since the Frankfort Cemetery wasn't started until ten years after his death.

They had the following children:

- | | | |
|-----------|------|-------------------|
| 29 | i. | John (-1828) |
| 30 | ii. | Martha |
| 31 | iii. | Matthew |
| 32 | iv. | Priscilla (-1879) |

Third Generation

Family of James Davis (2) & Ann Lnu

9. Harrison Davis (James², Benjamin¹). Born abt 1769.

See page 19 of Davis-Woodruff Families of Western Kentucky ¹by Virginia Couchot for the reasoning behind the assignment of these children to Harrison, instead of John or _____ Davis. However, Peggy Brown Chapman believes Harrison's children belong to Charles, based on the will of Thomas Davis which is difficult to read but clearly names Joseph Davis' children Thomas G and Benjamin Davis.

Harrison is gone from the Hopkins County tax rolls of 1830 and may have gone to Missouri.

The following may relate to him: Harrison Davis, born about 1773; married Patsey Crockett on Aug. 30, 1798 in Montgomery County, Kentucky. Ceremony performed by Joseph P. Howe. His will was probated in Christian County, KY in 1817.

He is probably the Harrison Davis who owned 500 acres on the Pond River in 1807 Hopkins County, according to the March 2005 Yesterday's Tuckaways.

Harrison married Martha "Patsy" Smith.

She may first have married a Crockett.

They had the following children:

42	ii.	Elizabeth Tolbert (1798-)
43	iii.	Frances Elvira (1799-1870)

10. James Davis Jr (James², Benjamin¹). Born abt 1772. James died in 1802 in Henderson Cty, KY.

Register Report

He was in Barren County with his father from 1800 until 1801, at which point he moved with brothers Robert and Daniel into Henderson County.

Upon the formation of the county of Hopkins, he was appointed to the Grand Jury.⁵

He opened a tavern at his house in the "Hog Eye" block near the corner of present day East Broadway and South Union Street on original lot #27. He established the tavern in competition with William Noel's tavern. The date would have been about 1808 and in April of that year the County Court set tavern rates within the county as seen in the 2004 Hopkins County Historical Society Yearbook. A night's rest was 12¢, rum sold for $2.66 and wine for $4.00 per gallon. It would be interesting to know if his father's wine was more expensive since it was the first vineyard in the state. (see Notes on Hugh McGary.)

He and Elizabeth Davis McGary moved to Gibson County, Indiana and later to Vanderburgh County, Indiana.

Hopkins Co. Deed Book 3:119 3 January 1820 William R. McGary and his wife Elizabeth of Vanderburgh Co. Indiana sold for $250 to Thomas Cardwell of Hopkins Co. two lots in Madisonville. Wit: Joseph Robertson, Winston Harvey and J.W.G. Godman.

Thomas died in Morton's Gap, Hopkins Cty, KY, on 3 May 1844; he was 79. Thomas was buried in Morton home plot, Morton's Gap, Hopkins Cty, KY.

Register Report

The town of Morton's Gap was named after Thomas and this family. He was born in Richmond, Virginia and moved to Clark County, Kentucky at age 26, in 1791, where he met and married Elizabeth Davis. Several years later in 1789 he moved to what became Morton's Gap.

He was a most industrious man and he cleared the land and raised the family. He built in 1804 a two-story brick rectangular brick house with two rooms on each floor and a gabled roof. This home stood for 132 years and was the first brick house in the County. Bricks for the house were burned on the spot, resulting in bricks of varying colors from yellow to deep red - the color difference due to the amount of heat used. Since the 1807 Tax Roll shows him with 9 slaves, it is reasonable to think he had much help on the home building. They moved into the new home in 1804 and on that same day their old house burned down. The new house lasted 132 years and was located where the current Morton's Gap school is.

About 3/4 miles from this home were the Peaks of Otter, or the highest point in Hopkins County, and the valley between them was later called the Gap, thus providing the name of the eventual town.

When he died, 966 acres were divided between 10 of 12 children. Excluded were Priscilla and Elizabeth H.

27. William M Davis (Richard², Benjamin¹). Born on 9 Jun 1789 in Virginia. William M died in Hopkins Cty, KY, on 4 Feb 1848; he was 58.

When Hopkins County was formed, the History says, "William Davis, son of Dick Davis, demonstrated his marksmanship under the rise down the path to the left".

William Davis was a veteran in the War of 1812, serving under General William Henry Harrison; after the war he returned to Hopkins County where he married, and where his father gave him a farm upon which he resided until his death in 1849 or 1850, in about his 62nd year.

Some believe Orlando Earl Davis was their son.

On 20 Feb 1807 when Nancy was 15, she married Dixon Givens. Born in 1784.

There are two theories: He is the son of John Givens, brother to Eleazar; else, he is from Rev. Richard Given's brother, Thomas Caleb,, whose son James Richard was said to be the grandfather of Dixon. See B469, page 47.

He came first to Salem and then Smithland, Kentucky.

Livingston County, Kentucky Will Book A, pp.130-132: Dickson Given's Will; Frankfort 12th July 1816. In the name of God Amen I Dickson Given of the County of Livingston and State of Kentucky now on a lengthy journey and sound in mind memory & best knowing the uncertainty of human life. If I never should return from sd journey to Philadelphia make this my last will and testament. 1st. I wish all my just debts to be paid and the partner-ship I am now in with my ever beloved Brother I wish to be closed. as soon as would be convenient. 2nd. I wish my ever beloved wife Nancy Given after all the Just debts are paid to have the one third part of my estate during her natural life both personal and real and at her decease to go equally to my children except the sum of five hundred dollars which I allow my wife to dispose of as she may please 3rd. I wish the remaining two thirds of my estate to be equally divided Between Fayette Henry Given, Mary Lucinda Given and Augustus Ney? Given and if Doctor James A. White, who now has my other child Easther Araminta Given in his possession should not immediately on my decease settle on her as much or more than I have to give my other children agreeable to his promise--In case of his failure a thing I think there is no doubt to be entertained but what he will comply as I always had and doe view him as a man of the strictest honour and integrity I say in case of his failure as above I wish my daughter as above mentioned Easther Araminta Given to have an equal part with the balance of my children and I wish if he should comply as promised I wish to give my daughter in remembrance that she may not think after I am dead and cold in the grave that because she did not live with me I had forgot her--I say I wish her to have a present out of any part of my property to the amt. of two Hundred dollars or to that amt. in anything she may fancy. I wish my executor which will be hereafter mentioned to get and purchase any thing she may want to that amt. above stated because she is absent? perhaps she may see those lines I wish to here observe to her that my affection is as strong as ever is (sic) was for any of my children for her 4th. I wish my ever beloved Brother Joseph R. Given my present partner and only brother to be my executor to take charge of all my earthly effects and I wish him not to be bound in any security I further wish him in case my beloved wife should ever marry again a thing I think likely as she is yet young to take charge of my children and put them out to school and not suffer them to live with a step father as step fathers are so apt to abuse children I wish here to observe for fear my ever dear wife may think this hard as she has suffered many pains and fatigues in raising those children that I have the utmost confidence in her and if I should never see her more I will here observe that I believe I have been blessed with one of the most affectionate and beloved companions that ever man was blessed with but if her 2nd Husband was to go to abuse my children what could a woman's arm do to hinder such abuse and my blood runs cold now in my Veighens to think of my little darling Babes receiving the stripes from a step father, - I should be glad if my wife could reconcile it to herself to never marry and raise our little darlings and her and my dear Brother conduct their education both male & female but this from the common course of things I could hardly expect as she is young. She may now think she will never marry but I fear will get out of that notion. 5th. I wish my children to have a complete education if it should take the chief part of their patrimony to do it - I do not wish them to labour under the same disadvantages that I do my mind being as good as many others that is called men of talent, yet language is denied. me to convey my Eides for the lack of education. both male & female I wish completely educated - this I will leave particularly with my brother for him to conduct their education with the advice &c. of my dear wife so long as she remains a widow -- I wish my dear wife to have and keep my portrait remembering at same time that is the resemblance of a man who was dearly attached to her and if the other world we should ever meet and be known to each other it would be gratifying to me in the extreme to see the partner of all my pleasures and griefs and know at same time she had well done her part below with our dear babes which lies heaviest on my mind, that and parting with my friends here below. And at her decease for my portrait to be given to some one of my children that appears the most anxious for to keep my resemblance. this will be judged off by my executor 6th. I wish here to observe that one principle reason for making my will at this time is that if I never should return I do not wish the County Court of Livingston to have any management of my children as I have always thought it was universally done by them. I do not wish to hurt their feelings of said Court many and indeed the most of them I venerate as men of a great deal of goodness of heart not surpassed by any but merely? the difference of opinion between them and me. 7- I wish my negroes and real estate to be divided and indeed all of my estate that can be done without selling I wish the whole management to be in my executor to sell or keep the personal estate as he may think would be best And I wish my negro boy Nero to live with my wife during her widowhood to manage and take care for her and when she marry I wish him to be sett free or I will leave it with my executor to sett him free or treat him as well as if he was free he has been a faithful servant to me and I would note he should not be abused but will leave this entirely with my executor to do as he pleases - In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand date above - I certify to the world this is my hand writing for above purpose - Dickson Given Commonwealth of Kentucky Livingston County Towit

I Jesse Patterson Clerk of the County Court for the County aforesaid do hereby certify that this the last will and testament of Dickson Given decd. was this day produced in open court and proven by the oaths of Joseph Watts, Robert A. Patterson & Jesse Patterson who testified that the whole of said will and the name thereto subscribed is in the hand writing of said Dickson Given and the said will was thereupon ordered to be recorded In testimony whereof and that I have recorded the same and this certificate I hereunto set my hand this 1st day of April 1833. caused by the resignation of Bledsoe and served from February 2, 1815, to March 3, 1819; again elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William Logan and served from October 19, 1820, to March 3, 1825; resumed the practice of law; died near Frankfort, Ky., September 25, 1837; interment in the State Cemetery, Frankfort, Ky.⁶

ISHAM TALBOT was born in the county of Bedford, the State of Virginia, in the year 1772. While quite a youth, his father emigrated with his family to Kentucky, and settled near Harrodsburg, in Mercer county. The means of acquiring an education, at that early day, were necessarily limited, and each individual in the pursuit of knowledge, had to rely, in a great degree, on the resources of his own intellect and will. Young Talbot was sent to the best schools of Harrodsburg; but he acquired, without the aid of teachers, a respectable knowledge of the ancient and some of the modern languages. On arriving at manhood, he studied law with Colonel George Nicholas, and commenced the practice of his profession in the town of Versailles, in Woodford county. He soon afterwards removed to Frankfort, and entered the lists when Clay, and Daviess, and Bibb, and Bledsoe, and Rowan adorned the bar; and public opinion of that day and this, has regarded Mr. Talbot as one of the brightest in that galaxy of illustrious names. In 1812, he was elected to the senate of Kentucky from the county of Franklin, which office he continued to hold until his election, in 1815, to the senate of the United States, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Jesse Bledsoe. In 1820, he was re-elected to the senate, and served in that body till the 4th of March, 1825. Mr. Talbot's career in the senate is a part of the history of our common country, and the reports of the debates of that body bear ample proofs of his eloquence and patriotism. He died at Melrose, his residence near Frankfort, on the 21st of September, 1837.

Isham first married Adelaid Lnu.

Isham second married Polly Thornton Taylor.

On 24 Jan 1804 Isham third married Margaret "Peggy" Garrard, daughter of James Garrard (1749-1822) & Elizabeth Mountjoy (1751-1832), in Franklin Cty, KY. Born on 31 Jul 1788 in Mt Lebanon, Bourbon Cty, KY. Margaret "Peggy" died in Bourbon Cty, KY, on 22 Mar 1815; she was 26.

40. Dr James Talbot (Elizabeth Davis², Benjamin¹). Born abt 1805. James died abt 17 Oct 1835.

Register Report

They were half first cousins once removed.

It appears that James and Jane might have accompanied the Hale Talbot relocation to Missouri. James was elected as a delegate from Montgomery County to the Missouri State Legislature in 1820. That session was historic in that it was a part of the great controversy that eventually concluded with the Missouri Compromise, one of the early precursors to the Civil War.

James married Jane Talbot, daughter of Hale Talbot.

Daughter Elizabeth is the main reason for assigning these children to Harrison, since, on July 30, 1827 (DB 5-138) gave to his daughter Elizabeth Young a Negro woman and child. If thus Harrison was her father, he almost certainly was the father of all. See notes on Harrison Davis.

Hopkins County's Oldest Citizen is Numbered With the Silent Majority. Mr. Thomas DAVIS, of the Nortonville country, and perhaps the oldest person in Hopkins County, died at his home on the 4th instant, aged 92 years. On account of a peculiar limp in one of his legs he was familiarly called "Hopping Tom." His wife, who is ten years younger, is still living and is at present making her home with her son, B.W. DAVIS, of Morton's Gap. The two old people were both born and reared in Hopkins county and have been living together as husband and wife for more than sixty years. About sixty-five years ago they united with the Christian church and have led consistent and upright lives. It is very probable that no one is now living in the county who has been a member of that church so long as these two good old Christian people. At the time of his death Mr. DAVIS had 131 living descendants, consisting of children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. He was one among the first who ever hauled goods from Henderson to Madisonville, when the latter town was first incorporated. He, in connection with Mr. John G. MORTON, made rails in their younger days for which they received twenty-five cents per hundred. Mr. MORTON in speaking of this old couple speaks of them in the very highest terms. Mr. DAVIS was during most of his life of a very vigorous disposition, was charitable and was much devoted to his friends. The Hustler, with other friends, wishes to join in expressions of sympathy to the good old wife and mother who is so sadly bereaved. Loving children and affectionate descendants will do all they can to make her life as pleasant as possible during her remaining days, yet none of these can be to her as was him who was her first and only love. [14 Dec 1894 Hustler]

On 26 Mar 1829 when Thomas C "Hopping Tom" was 26, he married Elvira Fox, daughter of Noah Fox (1776-1855) & Cynthia T Laffoon (~1781-1860), in Hopkins Cty, KY. 98. Thomas Chiles Davis (Thomas Chiles "Red Tom"³, Richard², Benjamin¹). Born on 2 Nov 1811 in Frankfort, KY. Thomas Chiles died in Liberty Hill, TX, on 7 Apr 1891; he was 79.

Capt. Thomas Chiles Davis, [born Frankfort, Ky 1811; died Texas 1891; son of Surg. Thomas Chiles Davis and grandson of Col. Richard Davis of Hopkins Co] must have been living at the time at Richmond, Ky, or in Fayette Co, where the disease created considerable havoc. As doctors were few and nurses were scarce and the situation growing more desperate each day, a coterie of young men (including himself) banded themselves together for the purpose of nursing the sick, comforting the dying and burying the dead; volunteering their services where the need was the most urgent.

In his account of his experiences he related that on one occasion they went to a farm house where they found every member of the family dead. All the negro servants had vanished, so they set about the task of attending the stock and cattle which were wailing for attention, feed and water, after which they dug a deep, large hole.

In the barn they had found a half-barrel of tar and smearing their hands and faces with it in the effort to prevent infection, they wrapped the bodies in the available bedding and buried them all in a common grave.

He did not state if there were others of this party who became infected, but he was stricken with the malady. Not being ignorant of medicine he fixed himself what he described as a "powerful dose" and retired to await his destiny. Fortunately he had a good constitution and recovered and lived to be eighty years old; but he never was fully retrieved from the effects of that attack of cholera.

He did not mention the names of his colleagues in this modest and unlauded act of courage. They went about this volunteer service fearlessly, without recompense or expectation of reward.

Mrs. Grace Felicia (Lander) Muelheim, Wife of William Davis, referred to herein as "O.E. Davis"; Mother of Henry William Davis, referred to herein as "Harry Davis". !From: Portrait & Biographical Record of St. Clair County, Illinois. Chicago: Chapman, 1892, pages 249-250. Obtained from the St. Clair County Genealogical Society, PO Box 431, Belleville, IL 62222-0431: Mrs. Grace Felicia (Lander) Muelheim. One of the most significant signs of the overturning of public opinion in the last few years is that, in these days, a woman may become learned and wealthy, may have opinions and not be afraid to mention them, may be successful in life, and may be sure that the male sex will no longer try to suppress her, but will bid her "God Speed." The original of the present sketch is one of the most successful business women in the West. She conducts a large millinery establishment in this city, and her name appears on quite as many papers for improvements and for charities, as does any man's of like means in East St. Louis. The family of Mrs. Mulheim is an old one, originally from Wales. The paternal grandfather came from there and became a large planter near Lexington, Ky. The father of our subject was born in Lexington, and also was a large planter and stock-raiser and one of the pioneer settlers of his portion of that State. He took part in the War of 1812, and grew very wealthy and prominent in that section. In 1853, he came to Washington County, Ill., leaving his beautiful home and the social honors that were his, because he could not approve of slavery, and felt that he must get into a free State. He was an old-line Whig, from which class have come giants of intellectual strength among the heroes of the past. Henry Lander was a man of strong convictions of right. He bought about a section of land near Nashville, Ill., and there passed a peaceful life, improving his estate until his death, in 1863. He was a member of the Baptist denomination and departed lamented by all. His name was well known among the Abolitionists of the North. The mother of this remarkable man was an aunt to the family of Breckenridge, and her father was a large planter and one of the first settlers of Christian County, Ky. The Landers were always proud of their descent, as it went back unbroken to those of noble birth in Wales. The beloved mother of our subject was Elizabeth Purcell, a native of Hopkinsville, Ky., and a daughter of the Pennsylvania Purcells. She lived a blameless life, doing her duty as the mother of a large family, and ended her days in Washington County, Ill. The father of Mrs. Muelheim was twice married, five children resulting from the first union and eight from the second. Our subject was the eldest of the children of the second marriage of her father. She was born in Christian County, Ky., October 21, 1834, and that was her home until she was nineteen years old. She was educated at private schools until her marriage, which occurred in Kentucky in 1852, to O.E. Davis, a Kentuckian, a cousin of Jefferson Davis, and who lived but six months after marriage. One child was the result of this union, Harry Davis, who now holds the position of Police Magistrate in East St. Louis. In 1856, Mrs. Davis was married to Charles Muelheim, a native of Cologne, Germany, who had come with his family to America in 1852, and located in Nashville, Ill., and engaged in the drug business. He then went into the management of a store and was a very successful merchant for twenty years. During her life in Nashville, Mrs. Muelheim was a member of Rebekah Lodge, and was a Sister in the Masonic Lodge. In 1872, our subject started in the business which her ability has made so prosperous. She located in East St. Louis in 1882, as she desired to settle her son, Dr. Robert M. Muelheim, in his profession here. Her affairs were in a very flourishing condition, but in 1890 she suffered from a fire, and was burned out. She was not dismayed, but went right to work and soon had her present building of two stories and with a frontage of twenty-five feet erected. She has finest front in her building of any in the city. Mrs. Muelheim has two daughters remaining of her second marriage: Carrie, now Mrs. Charles Foster, who resides in Elmira, N.Y., and Grace, now the wife of L.C. Doggett, the manager of the business of N. K. Fairbanks in St. Louis, Mo. A great grief came to Mrs. Muelheim in 1884, when her talented young son, Robert, was removed by death. He was a brilliant young man, and had graduated with honor from the Jefferson Medical College, when only nineteen years of age. He was graduated an M.D. from the State University, at Champaign, Ill., and there seemed to be a bright future before him, but these hopes were blasted. Mrs. Muelheim is a devout member of the Baptist denomination, as were her ancestors, and has been a Democrat in her political opinions since the Presidency of General Grant. She is a very pleasant lady in social life, and is one who can hold her own and command respect in any
